Mixed Marriage Mystery, from John Madeley:
“Why would some company make these metal holders to create a console set of Diamond car vases and a similarly crimped Vineland bowl?”

John sold me the 3 holders with 2 car vases long ago. He showed me that a Vineland bowl, for sale at convention that year, fit perfectly. But it was light cobalt – the wrong color blue. I finally found this Tut Blue lovely on Tom Monoski’s sale table last summer. No other blue bowl made by any company fits in the holder. I know – I’ve tried them all!
